FIRST ASSOCIATION FOR REUNION PURPOSES

EVACUATION GROUP PER FECTS ORGANIZATION.

Farewell Dance Given Monday Evening Proves Most Enjoyable Affair.

Company No. 48, of the evacuation hospital group at Camp Forrest, is the first organization in the camp as far as is known that has formed what is known as a "Comrade assocition." This is to be an after-the-war organization, and the plans are that the members shall meet at some designated place annually. The organization was perfected on last Saturday afternoon after the men received the orders that were to be sent to the general base hospitals in the east to care for the returning wounded soldiers. Sergt. Sumter was appointed historian, and Lieut. Hotchkiss was placed in charge of the company trophies. Members of Company 48 will leave

Chattanooga Thursday morning at 9:30 for the east together with other members of the evacuation hospital group. In addition to this about 200 will leave on the 5:30 o'clock train group. In addition to this about 200 will leave on the 5:30 o'clock train this afternoon.

A farewell dance was given by evacuation hospital, company 48, on Monday evening at the officers' mess hall. It is said to be see of the largest and biggest affairs that has ever been given by this group. There were fully 250 couples present at the dance, which included a number of the young girls from Chattanooga.

room was attractively decorated in American flags, together with Christmas bells and other holiday suggestions.

The committee in general charge of the affair was Lieut. Bitler, Sergt. Cocoran and Sergt. Boettcher.

The Hawalian sexette, composed of six soldier boys from the company, who, prior to the war have traveled throughout the states on the stage, furnished several numbers during the evening which proved to be unusually entertaining.

How to be pretty though comfortable is one of life's little puzzles for the busy woman. After a long day of activities, she has the same desire to slip into something loose and soft that friend husband feels for his that friend husband feels for his easy chair and slippers. But a wise woman knows she must look dainty and neat even in her relaxation hours—and so chooses a house gown like this one sketched for Fashion Art. This graceful frock is of pale blue crepe de chine with pipings of pale yellow, with a cluster of blue, yellow and lavender harebells at the right side of the broad girdle.

SEEN IN A DAY

On an outgoing local street car, seventeen girls, of sundry ages and sizes, among the passengers. Every one of them was a blonde, not a single brunette or red-headed lassie in the number. But there was every kind of blonde, natural, peroxide, ultra-fiaxen haired, dashing, washed-out and but words fell. Then by out and—but words fail. Then, by ones and twos the girls began to leave the car and, honest, they all were gone after a length of ten-blocks. Is there a zone in Chatta-nooga where only blondes will thrive?

Lieut. Starkey Cables

Leaves Officers' Hospital in Paris to Join His Division in Germany.

A bale has been received from Lieut. Joseph W. Starkey to the effect that he was leaving the hospital in Paris to join his company in Germany. Lieut. Starkey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Starkey, of Highland Park, and has been wounded twice, the first time on July 18, at Chateau-Thierry, and the second on Oct. 8, in the drive of the Ninth Infantry at Argonne. Following this last wound he was sent to a hospital in Paris which was provided for officers only, and in a letter while there he has described it as a most wonderful place. He was in this hospital for two months. His division is a part of the army of occupation and is already in Germany.

RED CROSS GIVES CHRISTMAS CHEER

MISS FAHRIG RESIGNS A SECRETARY.

The Week Before Christmas Will Mark the Annual Roll Call.

Roll Call.

Dr. T. S. McCallie, chairman of the Red Cross, has returned from Atlanta, where he was in conference with division headquarters about the Christmas plans for the soldiers at the army post. The Chattanooga chapter Red Cross will extend Christmas hospitality to the sick, wounded and convalescent soldiers on Christmas afternoon at the Red Cross convalescent hospital. Mrs. Hewitt Wood is general chairman for the Red Cross, and while her plans have not fully been developed, indications point towards having a Christmas tree with bits of sweets and cigarettes and Yuletide decorations to carry good cheer. While there may not be but one at this building, several trees will be placed in other buildings.

Miss Marcelle Fahrig has resigned as executive scoretary of the Red as executive secretary of the Red Cross home service, and has accepted cross home service, and has accepted the position as supervisor of the Mountain division of the Home service, with headquarters at Denver. She will leave for Denver Dec. 16. Dr. McCallie has appointed Miss Sadie James executive secretary and division agent of the Home service with headquarters at Chattanooga and she will take charge on Dec. 16. with headquarters at Chattanooga and she will take charge on Dec. 16. This department is very busy, assisting in correspondence where it is necessary to attend to allotments which have failed to come, and in some cases the family has to be tided over financially until the expected allotment comes. Some kind of Christmas cheer will be given the families who need it, coming under the head of this department.

No definite steps were taken toward the actual building of the structure, the most important features of the meeting being the election of a permanent chairman of the commit-tee, O. P. Darwin, and a secretary, Rev. Harold Major, and the appoint-ing of an executive board, consisting of D. H. Griswold, C. H. Huston, W. E. Brock, G. H. Patten and N. J. Crowley Crowley, Mayor Littleton spoke in favor o

Mayor Littleton spoke in favor of raising the money necessary—about 300,000—by opening polls at all the regular voting places throughout the city and county and there receiving popular subscriptions. He placed the citizen who would not give anything for an auditorium in the same categry as the liberty loan slacker.

Judge Sam Conner, representing the county, was not able to be present, but sent word that he was heartly in favor of the auditorium provided the money could be raised without resort to direct taxation,

WON'T SELL SEALS

Red Cross Christmas stickers will not be sold this year as has been the custom for the past few years. The stamps are sold by the organization for the purpose of raising funds to wage war against the rav-ages of tuberculosis. The Red Cross during the past year as a war meas-ure, has appropriated $2,500,000 to fight the most destructive of all discases. Ten stamps in a neat folder will be awarded to each member of the Red Cross as a token of their part in the fight against lung trouble. In addition to the Christmas seals each subscriber to the Christmas roll call will be given a neat Red Cross membership button to be worn on the lapel of the coat, or a Red Cross service flag to be hung in the win-dow with additional stars for duplicate subscribers. To advertise the roll call, four new posters have been prepared. One is a lithograph from a crayon drawing of America's war president. A sec-ond is a drawing of a Red Cross nurse in field equipment done in col-ors. In the distance is a column of ors. In the distance is a column of marching Sammies led by the flag. There are two new Christmas scenes, one of a boy pasting a service flag in the window, while the other is a snow scene. The world famous Red Cross poster titled "The Greatest Mother in the World" will be used again. A desk poster has also been prepared from the same cut.
